Background Description

Cornelius is the Head of Sales at Caruso. He wants to present the data Caruso offers to potential customers but can't prepare appetisers by himself because of his lack of technical knowledge.

His colleague Annie can prepare appetisers for him but is busy with other work and can only invest little time to help him. He would like to be able to prepare them himself to fit his vision more closely.

Goals and Motivations

- Build trust with customers
- Present the Caruso data in a convincing fashion

Needs and Challenges

- Little technical knowledge
- Can't prepare data appetisers alone
- Current data appetisers are lacking

Behaviors

- Invests in the stock market
- Very sociable and extroverted
- Open to new experiences

How can we help?

- Provide a tool for making appetisers that is easily configurable by a non-technical user
- Offer visualisations of important data items
